Ever since the orders defining the term "Ex-servicemen" issued in the Government Order first read above, there have been several changes and clarifications issued to the term "Ex-servicemen". It has also been noticed that in certain Government Departments, the old form of definition is still being followed which results in denial of concessions/facilities to the genuine Ex-servicemen and some ineligible persons who do not come under the definition get the benefits extended to Ex-servicemen. Accordingly, the Government direct that the following definitions be made applicable to personnel who retired on or before 30-06-1968, between 01-07-1968 and 30-06-1979 (both days included), between 01-07-1979 and 30-06-87 (both days included) and on or after 1-07-1987. ORDER:

In the G.O. second read above, after carefully considering the question of relaxing any technical restrictions, including age limit prescribed in the Service Rules in favour of "destitute widows", the following revised instructions were issued in the matter of giving preference to 'destitute widows' in the appointment to Public Services:-

- (a) Special consideration shall be given to the destitute widows for appointment to all posts in Government service, local bodies and Government aided institutions, provided the candidates fully satisfy the qualification rule and are otherwise eligible on merits; the word "Special consideration" denotes that when other things are equal, destitute widows should be preferred over others who are also competitors for a particular post;

- (b) Same age limit as prescribed for Scheduled Caste candidates shall be made applicable for destitute widows of all castes;
- (c) Special consideration shall also be given to the destitute widows for admission to the training institutions provided they satisfy the educational requirements prescribed under the rules and are otherwise eligible on merits;
- (d) The expression "destitute widows" is defined as one who has neither any means by herself to live nor any dependant to protect her from starvation.

In the G.O. 3rd read above, orders were issued amending General Rule 12(d) for the Tamil Nadu State and Subordinate Services, wherein a concession has been given to certain castes, to include destitute widows of all castes also in the said concession and adding an explanation thereunder that "for the purpose of this sub-rule 'destitute widow' means a widow who has neither any means by herself to live nor any dependant to protect her from starvation". This amendment came into force from 31st July, '87. Subsequently, in the G.O. 4th read above, after General Rule 55, a new rule i.e. General Rule 56 was added with the same explanation given under General Rule 12(d), as below:-

"56. Employment concession for destitute widows:-

Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules or in the Special rules for the various State and Subordinate Services, preference shall be given to the destitute widows who possess the qualifications prescribed for appointment to any post under the State Government by direct recruitment.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this rule, "destitute widow" means a widow who has neither any means by herself to live nor any dependant to protect her from starvation."

2. The Government have considered in detail the question of redefining the term "destitute widow" and to delete the explanations in General rules 12(d) and 56. The following revised instructions are accordingly issued:-

I. DEFINITION OF "DESTITUTE WIDOW":-

The term "destitute widow" is hereby defined as a widow whose total monthly income from all sources is not more than Rs. 1,000/- (Rupees One thousand only) including any family pension or other receipts including income from private practice in the case of professionals. A divorcee will not, however, be treated as a "widow".

II. FORMAT AND COMPETENT AUTHORITY FOR ISSUE OF CERTIFICATE TO CANDIDATES CLAIMING TO BE "DESTITUTE WIDOW":-

The format for issue of the certificate to candidates claiming to be "destitute widows" is appended to this order. The Revenue Divisional Officer, is empowered to issue such a certificate.

III. APPLICABILITY OF RULE OF RESERVATION:-

Destitute widows who do not get selected against open vacancies (i.e.) vacancies not reserved for women) or Open Competition turn with reference to their marks in the relevant Competitive examination/interview; as the case may be, will be considered only under women's quota of 30 per cent of vacancies in Public Services. Destitute widows who belong to other communities and who possess the prescribed qualifications and are found to be fit by passing the competitive examination by getting the minimum qualifying marks shall be selected for vacancies reserved for women under the O.C. turn in preference to other women eligible for selection to the said O.C. turn even though the other women might have secured higher marks. Similarly, the destitute widows belonging to the respective reservation categories, i.e. Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Most Backward Classes/Notified Communities and Backward Classes who possess the prescribed qualifications and are found to be fit by passing the competitive examination by getting the minimum qualifying marks and who do not get selected against open vacancies or O.C. turn as mentioned above shall be selected for vacancies reserved for women belonging to the respective reservation category even though other women of the same reservation category might have secured higher marks. In other words, the communal rotation should not be affected by the preference given to the destitute widows and there is no reservation for destitute widows. A destitute widow belonging to one reservation category cannot, however, be selected against a vacancy meant for another reservation category.
